Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 11.— Torreyson broke his Chicago City league battery, Barber and Corbett, all owing to the latter signing with Wheeling, and he played behind the bat to-day, Twineham going to first base. The visitors were unable to get a hit off Barber until the fourth when, after two men had been passed along on balls. Poole scored them with a three-bagger. They could not hit Barber efectively, however, and most of their uns were made on errors.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Glants de-eated Pittsburgh by hard hitting this fternoon. The visitors used up three litchers. Meekin allowed the visitors to get a good lead. He was relieved by Coak-ley in the fourth inning, and the latter did not allow a single hit, the Pittsburgh's two runs in the fifth inning being due to a base on balls end an error by Tiernan. ### BOXING.

Until September the Metropolitan's Fulton clubhouse will be silent as the grave, the Fischer-Moore fiasco winding up the season, which was replete with good attractions minus the final one, and in this connection it is not amiss to point out the fact that the club was imposed on. If a poor show is put on a theatre, as is often the case, for shows like fighters are good and bad, the show is condemned, and ball, the show is condenined, but not the theatre. A manager of a theatre tries to give his patrons the best, because he is in the town to stay, The same state of affairs applies to the Metropolitan Athletic Club, and all wild criticisms of the club on account of Moore's evident lay down are pure rot, without any basis of truth. With less than $80 gate receipts, of which 60 per cent was to be divided between the principals, and of this pality amount three-fourths to go to the winner, what was there in it even for the principals? No wonder they tired in five rounds. The club not only lost money, but unjustly suffered in reputation, and the fact that on only two of its six entertainments has it come out on the right side of the ledger, entitles it to some commendation for its perseverance in trying to give good satisfaction. The four members of the club have had to go down in their jeans several times and they have the chief reason to kick.

Oscar Gardner's generosity is noted not the theatre. A manager of a the-

Oscar Gardner's generosity is noted and an example of it was shown in his paying the board while here of Fischer and Moore, besides sending them railroad tickets in advance, something very seldom done. "Bit," says the great hearted little fellow, "I'm in the business myself and know what it is to be stranded." Oscar was poorly paid in the exhibition the men gave and he felt it worst of all. He is out quite a pile on the season. "I wouldn't mind losing," he explained, "to boost the club, but I hate to when it's the reverse."

August 8 is the date when Osbar Gardner and Jack O'Brien, the light-weight, will clash at catchweights. The match was made by Paddy Sullivan, Oscar's manager, and under his contract Oscar has to go on, although the match is considered ill advised by fits Wheeling friends. Sullivan may next want to try Oscar out against Jeffdes.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11 .- A telegram has been received in this city from Billy Delaney, Jim Jeffries' trainer, which seems to indicate that the champion has backed out of his pro-posed four-round go with Jeffords, the posed four-round go with Jeaning, the heavy weight from Angel's Camp. Jef-fries proposed to knock out his man in four rounds or forfelt $500. The Na-tional club made a match for next week and Jeffords arrived here to-day to sign articles. ### MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS,

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

Louis Krismer, who resides in Aetnaville met death while at work yesterday on the second of the Sisters islands. He was employed by Henry Koehnlein, together with three others, putting down a well. The well was being walled with large sewer pipe and Krismer was at the bottom, a distance of twenty-eight feet, comenting, the Johns. He had only been in the well a few minutes when he called to be pulled up, but before this could be accomplished he was overcome by the poisonous gases. The fear of the gases was such that none of the other men would venture into the depths. Some minutes elapsed when a workman engaged in hauling sand nearby, volunteered to go down and it was after considerable difficulty that Krismer was brought to the surface. A doctor was immediately summoned, but it was too late. Krismer leaves a family of six children, all small, with the exception of one daughter, who is married. Death was caused by asphyxiation. The arrangements for the funeral, further than that it will be held to-morrow, had not been arranged up until a late hour last night.

A NARROW ESCAPE,

A NARROW ESCAPE.
Yesterday afternoon on Centre street one of the stay wires was broken loose from the trolley wire, causing it to sag directly over the Cleveland & Pittaburgh tracks. The yard engine 4 me along in a few minutes and ran into it, and had it not been for the wire breaking and flying back on each side of the track, the enginemen might have been electrocuted in their seats. As it was they received only a slight shock. The accident delayed the street cars, compelling them to transfer at the Cleveland & Pittsburgh tracks. The wire was repaired and last evening the cars were running regularly again, after were running regularly again, being delayed three or four hours.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County
Property owners should begin to think seriously of selecting a capable man for decennial appraiser in this city, as well as in other sections. It is an important work and should be done by a man familiar with values and who understands something of the trend of events as well as affairs. These appraisers are to be elected this fall and no nominations have yet been made, except in some of the rural townships. The selection should be made by a full representation of those interested most, whether that be by mass convention or by a primary, but it is a matter of great interest to all property owners.
